

Procedural equality of arms in preliminary injunction proceedings in unfair competition law and the role of protective letters [GER ONLY]

14. May 2021

An Article by Dr. Elisabeth Stöve

In recent months, the Federal Constitutional Court has repeatedly commented on the procedural equality of arms in preliminary injunction proceedings in unfair competition law. Elisabeth Stöve shows in which three basic constellations both parties are sufficiently involved in preliminary injunction proceedings in unfair competition law. In a fourth principle, she highlights the importance of the protective letter.
